SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDE

We have established these websites to improve communication, build a sense of community, and to have a centralized place for notifications, such as:

- Reminders about social activities
- Community and local events
- Resources in your neighborhood, such as nearby restaurants and things to do
- Immediate need-to-know situations

We know that everyone has communication preferences, and for this reason, you'll be able to receive this information automatically if you choose to follow us on Twitter or Facebook.

You can also sign up to receive all new announcements by email.
